(XLVIIIth YEAR.) THE (No. 2401.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 1793.

HAGUE, October 4.

IT is now well known that immenſe ſums are ſent from this country, and particularly from Amſterdam, to the combined armies. The houſe of Hope in particular furniſhes continual ſupplies, and pays all the contracts of the emigrant princes.

BRUSSELS, November 9.

You muſt have obſerved in my laſt, that the affairs this country were taking a very different turn from at had been expected. The event of Tueſday laſt too great a proof of this. The French attacked on t day, the Auſtrian army near Mons, with ſo much petuoſity, that in the action, which laſted from ht in the morning till four o'clock in the afternoon, whole Auſtrian army was completely routed and reated to Caſtian, a league beyond Mons. At ſix the evening Dumourier ſent a trumpeter to offer the ce to capitulate.

The capitulation was accepted, and the French took ſſeſſion of Mons on Wedneſday at twelve o'clock at on. As ſoon as the ſuperiority of the French army s known, orders were ſent to the troops in Flanders fall back upon Mons, and ſuccours were ſent for to nce Hohenloe's army. All theſe ſuccours united m ſtill an army of 50,000 men, which is at preſent ted at Braine le Compt and Nivelles, whilſt the d of the French army is already at Soignies. It is ured that the capitulation was ſigned on the 7th by neral Dumourier's adjutant and general Beaulieu, o had remained in the city with two battalions.

The capitulation ſtates, "That the Auſtrian troops ll have evacuated the Belgic provinces before the th of this month, except the provinces of Luxemg, Limburg, and Guelderland."—Dumourier has nted the tree of liberty in Mons, and gibbets for ſe who ſhall manifeſt a ſpirit of party, or ſhall turb the public tranquillity. This ſtrict police uld tranquillize the inhabitants of the other cities; t however, is not the caſe here, for ſince the day fore yeſterday, is in the greateſt agitation and rm.

Every body is getting away, and though the duke Saxe and the archduke Charles are ſtill in the army, archduchеſs ſat off yeſterday, ſome ſay for Bonn, ers ſay for the Hague. The plenipotentiary miniſ- is well as all the members of the government, are o gone to Ruremonde in Guelderland. In ſhort it a general breaking up. The army of Bourbon, ich has fled from the environs, from Namur, arved laſt night at the gates of this city, but entrance s refuſed them.

The number of the fugitives to Holland had already ed the city of Antwerp, where a number of emiants, who could not procure lodgings, attempted in hand, to force the inhabitants to lodge them, which the inhabitants fell upon them and their gage, which they plundered.

VALENCIENNES, October 23.

The Auſtrians, whom the intrepidity of the inhaants of Liſle and Hanſon, and the approach of umourier have filled with alarm, yeſterday morning ok the wiſe courſe of retiring towards Tournay, and ndoning St. Amand, Orchies, Marchiennes with that part of the frontier of which they took poſſeſon on our raiſing the camp of Maulde. Ducarrion rſued the fugitives, and immediately took poſſeſſion St. Amand and of all the other poſts. General umourier has ſent a ſufficient force to prevent theſe wardly plunderers from daring to ſhew themſelves gain on our frontiers. The volunteers of St. Amand e returned to their homes, and the ariſtocrats are d with the Auſtrians. Forty thouſand men at leaſt e here, and in the environs ready to continue the mpaign, notwithſtanding the fatiguing march they ve juſt made. Our huſſars, cantoned at Ouvain, daily as far as Quievrain; they will ſoon go furer.

The Auſtrians appear alarmed, eſpecially for Luxnburg. Their heavy artillery is tranſporting towards ons and Tournay are weakly defended. There e not more than ten thouſand men in garriſon, and the cantonments. The ramparts of Mons have ly ſix pieces of iron cannon. Above all, the peoe are well diſpoſed to receive us.

PARIS, October 26.

Laſt night a courier arrived from the army of the hine; and this morning a letter from general Cuſtine as read in the convention, announcing that he had ken poſſeſſion of Mentz on the 21ſt inſtant. His my conſiſted of 22,000 men, and the garriſon conſiſted according to ſome accounts, of 10,000, ſurendered priſoners of war, without firing a ſhot, or ther receiving the French as friends and deliverers. he artillery fired a ſalute of welcome. Cuſtine found in the place 100 pieces of cannon, with large magazines of ſtores and proviſions. His letter marks the lively acclamations and the cordial teſtimonies of friendſhip with which he was received by all ranks of people remaining in the city, for thoſe who had little cauſe to rejoice at ſuch a viſit, had provided for their own ſafety by a timely flight.

Thus far has ſucceſs attended the French arms in their progreſs to plant the tree of liberty on the fartheſt banks of the Rhine. It is not probable that much more will be attempted at preſent in that quarter, although this new and extraordinary mode of making war baffles all ordinary calculations.

To-day we expect the report of the committee on the decree of accuſation againſt Marat. The cauſe of France will not only be revenged without, but ſome reparation of the national honour is about to be made within. More blood may be ſhed in Paris, but it will be that of the murderers of the 2d and 3d of September.

We are in a ſtate of perfect tranquillity. The reign of the agitators is paſt, and that of peace and good order re-eſtabliſhed on pretty ſolid foundations.

LONDON, October 15.

It muſt be particularly gratifying to the French to have obtained the poſſeſſion of Worms, as that city was the cradle of the coalition. Here it was that the prince of Conde held his court; and hence was the firſt declaration of the emigrants iſſued againſt the acts of the conſtituent aſſembly.

It will require all poſſible prudence in the government of the Netherlands, to prevent the effects of an idea, that the Belgic provinces have their fate annexed to the ſucceſs of the eſtabliſhment of democracy in France.

The duchy of Savoy lies ſo open to the French, that it has always been ſubject to their incurſions, and has ever ſubmitted when ſo attacked. There is no merit in the French conqueſts, for they have met with no reſiſtance.

Oct. 16. In the perſon of the unfortunate Louis the ſixteenth, nothing is neglected which can debaſe royalty.

The Jacobins of Straſburg have lately diſtinguiſhed themſelves in this purſuit, by a groteſque farce, worthy the era of the religious perſecutions, in which royalty has been interred. Louis the laſt was perſonated, and followed the coffin, accompanied by a great number of princes and capuchins, barons and franciſcans, gentlemen and doctors of the ſorbonne, knights of the red and blue ribbons, doctors of law, queens, courtezans, princeſſes, nuns, cardinals, canons and grey ſiſters, a groupe of long eared ariſtocrats, and an hundred long-noſed feuillants, all of them caricatured in a ſimilar manner.

Twenty thouſand male and female citizens, preceded and followed the proceſſion; and a noiſy band of muſic performed at ſome times a dead march, and at others the tune of Ca Ira. A numerous choir of baſes and counter-tenors ſung alternately ſolemn muſic and baccanalian ſtrains.—Pandora's box ſerved to repreſent the coffin of royalty. Louis the laſt had for his coffin a tun, which had contained burgundy. The city was illuminated, and the night ſpent in dancing and carouſing.

M. Garat, the younger, is choſen miniſter of juſtice in France, in the room of M. Danton.

The miniſter of the interior department of Paris, has written to the general council of the commons, to demand, by virtue of a decree, every neceſſary information reſpecting the meaſures taken to ſecure the ſafety of the ci-devant monarch, who is to be judged by the whole of the republic. He alſo demands to know in what way he is treated, and what expences have been incurred on his account.

The effects of the priſoners murdered in the month of September have been ſold by public auction. It has not been ſtated whether the produce will be delivered to their relations, nor is their as yet any idea of making them amends for the effects ſtolen, much more conſiderable than thoſe which have been ſubmitted to the form of a ſale.

Letters from Lithuania, in Poland, ſtate, that the confederation of the crown, and that of Lithuania, aſſembled at Bitza, have ſigned a ſolemn act of union. This ceremony was accompanied by embraces and unequivocal demonſtrations of joy, at the return of liberty and independence. The ancient Sarmatian cuſtom of holding a ſabre in the hand, during the performance of the evangelical maſs, was reſtored on this occaſion.

A deputation of twelve members was ordered to repair to Peterſburg, to expreſs to her Imperial majeſty the grateful acknowledgments of the two united confederations.

At Stockholm all the duties on brown ſugar are to be taken off, with a view of favouring the increaſe of the eſtabliſhment of ſugar houſes.—The moſt fertile provinces in Sweden have this year produced but a very ſcanty crop of corn.

Nov. 6. The French are diſſatisfied with the articles agreed upon between general Monteſquieu and the republic of Geneva. They object in particular to the article which ſtipulates, that the French troops ſhall retire to the diſtance of ten leagues from the city, while no diſtance is ſtipulated for the Swiſs troops. The executive council of France have ſent back the articles unratified, with ſuch alterations as they think neceſſary.

Letters from general Kellerman's army ſtate, that he has detached 20,000 men to join general Cuſtine. As the Auſtrians have been obliged to concentrate their troops for the defence of the Netherlands, and the Pruſſians ſeem to be totally inactive, this additional force will enable Cuſtine to carry the principles of liberty and equality into the very heart of the German empire.

The members of the diet of Ratiſbon begin to drive the emigrants from their territories; and to declare that to charge them with principles hoſtile to the French revolution, or even to the Jacobins, is a wicked calumny.

The national convention of Savoy met at Chambery on the 21ſt of October, and, after declaring itſelf the repreſentative duly elected of the ſovereign people of Savoy, releaſed the four provinces from all allegiance to the king of Sardinia, and expreſſed their wiſh of being united to the republic of France.

The king of Sardinia having made preſſing ſolicitations to the government at Milan for aid againſt the French, 10,000 Auſtrians that were encamped at Pavia have been ordered to march for Piedmont.

Alexander Beauharnois moved the ſociety of Straſburg, that the Holy Vial, kept at Rheims, and containing the ſacred oil with which the kings of France were formerly anointed, ſhould be brought to Paris, and that the oil ſhould be burnt out on the altar of liberty, and the vial broken.

Extract of a letter from Dublin, October 30.

"You cannot form an idea of the joy that pervaded all ranks of people on receiving the news of the expulſion of the army of diſciplined ſlaves from the territories of the republic of France. It would be impoſſible to deſcribe the ſatisfaction evident in every countenance, from the peer to the peaſant in this kingdom; placemen, penſioners and police-men excepted. A hand-bill appeared yeſterday, and a notice in the papers, recommending to the inhabitants of this city a peaceable demonſtration of their joy by an illumination. Our lord mayor, late a police commiſſioner, iſſued his proclamation, commencing with a falſehood or miſrepreſentation of the hand-bill, aſſerting it to be for the purpoſe of compelling the inhabitants to illuminate."

PHILADELPHIA, January 9.

In the national convention of France, on the 15th of November, M. Petion propoſed a motion of order, reſpecting the king's inviolability, "whether he is amenable before them or not." The firſt queſtion to be debated was, "ſhall the king be tried?" and after a lengthy debate, in which Meſſieurs Morriſon and Fauchet, were for the inviolability, and Meſſieurs St. Juſt and Robert, were againſt it, it was adjourned to Thurſday.

A letter was read from M. Dumourier, of the 30th of October, in which he ſays he wiſhes to retire and enjoy his otium cum dignitate. He urges the giving general Valence the title of commander in chief of the army of the Ardennes.

A letter from general Labourdonnaie, of 10th November, announcing the ſurrender of the city of Ghent without the leaſt reſiſtance.

It was reported in Paris on the 15th of November, that general Valence had entered the country of Namur his troops ſhouting Vive la Republique Françoiſe.

M. Kellerman appeared at the bar of the convention on the 14th of November, and was received with much applauſe—he preſented the maps of ſixty camps, planned and formed by himſelf in three months. He ſtated that being appointed to command the armies of the Alps, he ſhould conduct himſelf like an old ſoldier, better able to act than talk, he ſhould announce the victories of the armies in five words, "they have beaten their enemies."

The miniſter at war announced the receipt of 300,000 livres, levied as a contribution by Cuſtine at Spires.

M. Necker has publiſhed a long pleading in favour of Louis XVI.

A battalion has ſet out from Dunkirk, to take poſſeſſion of OSTEND, agreeably to the invitation of the magiſtrates, who have delivered the place into the hands of the French.

An Engliſh ſquadron at Genoa, was celebrating the acceſſion of the king of England. All the veſſels in the harbour fired guns and hoiſted colours in compliment to the Engliſh flag, except a French frigate, the captain of which was required by the Engliſh admiral to do the ſame, but refuſed. Upon which an Engliſh ſhip of war poured three or four broadſides into the French frigate.

It appears from the papers we have peruſed, that one ſpirit animates the French, which muſt conduct them to victory, and that the inimical courts diſagree, while half their ſubjects are friendly to the cauſe of France.

BRUNSWICK, after threats to treat the French with a high hand, proving unſucceſsful in the attempt, wiſhed to treat with them on terms of peace; but was obliged to RE-treat;—we now find, that having retired from the French territory, he is about to retire from the command, no doubt heartily tired of the campaign.

Jan. 10. General Dumourier has entered Bruſſels at the head of a numerous army; and the regent of Sweden has acknowledged the republic of France.

Extract of a letter from New-York.

"The packet brings an account of a probable revolution in Ireland; 80,000 men are already raiſed for the purpoſe."

Extract of a letter from New-York, written laſt Tueſday morning.

"The Montgomery, captain Bunyan, came up this day, after a long and tedious paſſage. Not one word of Mr. Wignall nor any of his company."

Mr. BLANCHARD the bold Æronaut, agreeably to his advertiſement, at five minutes paſt ten o'clock yeſterday morning, roſe with a BALLOON from the Priſon-court in this city, in preſence of an immenſe concourſe of ſpectators, there aſſembled on the occaſion. The proceſs of inflating the balloon commenced about nine o'clock.—Several cannon were fired from the dawn of day until the moment of elevation; a band of muſic played during the time of inflating, and when it began to riſe, the majeſtical flight was truly awful and intereſting,—the ſlow movement of the band, added ſolemnity to the ſcene. Indeed the attention of the multitude was ſo abſorbed, that it was a conſiderable time before ſilence was broke by the acclamations which ſucceeded.

As ſoon as the clock had ſtruck ten, every thing being punctually ready, Mr. Blanchard took a reſpectful leave of all the ſpectators, and received from the hands of the preſident a paper, at the ſame time the preſident ſpoke a few words to this bold adventurer, who immediately leaped into his boat, which was painted blue and ſpangled; the balloon was of a yellowiſh coloured ſilk highly varniſhed, over which there was a ſtrong net-work—Mr. Blanchard was dreſſed in a plain blue ſuit, a cocked hat and white feathers. As ſoon as he was in the boat, he threw out ſome ballaſt, and the balloon began to aſcend ſlowly and perpendicularly, whilſt Mr. Blanchard waved the colours of the United States and alſo thoſe of the French republic, and flouriſhed his hat to the thouſands of citizens from every part of the country, who ſtood gratified and aſtoniſhed at his intrepidity. After a few minutes, the wind blowing from the northward and weſtward, the balloon roſe to an immenſe height and then ſhaped its courſe towards the ſouthward and eaſtward. Several gentlemen galloped down the point road, but ſoon loſt ſight of it, for it moved at the rate of twenty miles an hour.

Great numbers who had neglected to purchaſe tickets, were afflicted with conſiderable regret, at not having been immediately preſent in the Priſon-court to ſee the preparations, and to witneſs the undaunted countenance of the man who thus ſublimely dared to ſoar through the regions of the air. And it is reported that a number of ladies and gentlemen intend to open another and more extenſive ſubſcription at Oellers's, to indemnify Mr. Blanchard for the expences he has incurred, which it is ſaid are exceedingly greater than the amount of the firſt ſubſcription.

Anxiety for the ſafety of the Æronaut was painted on every face from the time the citizens loſt ſight of him, and various were the conjectures as to the place where he would deſcend.

About half after ſix o'clock laſt evening we were happy to meet Mr. Blanchard again in this city, going to pay his reſpects to the preſident of the United States.—He informed us, that his ærial voyage laſted forty-ſix minutes, in which time he ran over a ſpace of more than fifteen miles and then deſcended a little to the eaſtward of Woodbury in the ſtate of New-Jerſey—where he took a carriage and returned to Cooper's ferry—and was at the preſident's, as we have already mentioned at half paſt ſix o'clock laſt evening.

ANNAPOLIS, January 17.

NATIONAL CONVENTION of FRANCE, October 9.

On reading over the minutes of yeſterday, a debate aroſe on the decree reſpecting emigrants; and it was finally decreed, that ſuch of them as are taken with arms in their hands, ſhall be executed within twenty-four hours after being proved to be emigrants before a military commiſſion of five perſons, to be appointed by the etat major of the army; foreigners who have quitted the ſervice of France ſince the 14th of July, 1789, and joined the emigrants, or the enemy, to be treated in the ſame manner; the powers at war to be reſponſible for all violations of the law of nations by any reprizals made by the emigrants.

NOTICE to MARINERS.

The Light-houſe on Cape Henry, in Virginia, is now completed, and the lamps were lighted for the firſt time, on the night of the 17th of November. The foundation of this building ſtands about fifty feet above the level of the high-water mark, and the lamps, in clear weather, may be ſeen to the diſtance of thirty miles. The preciſe latitude of the ſpot is 36, 58,—45.

January 15, 1793. 10 7/6

THE ſubſcriber propoſes, in the enſuing ſpring, to have a number of STAVES, of different kinds, made on his land, ſituated about eight miles from George-town, and five from Bridge-town, at the head of Cheſter, Kent county, in this ſtate, and about eight miles from Duck-creek, in the ſtate of Delaware. He wiſhes to put the buſineſs into the hands of a careful and experienced perſon, who will procure ſuch workmen under him as may be neceſſary, can give good ſecurity, if required, for any engagements he may enter into, and will prepare the Staves for whatever market they are intended for, at his own expence. He would prefer paying the perſon he contracts with a certain proportion of the net profits ariſing from the ſale of the ſtaves, to giving a fixed price. As ſome parts of the timber will not anſwer for ſtaves, but may ſuit for ſhip-building, he means to have ſuch parts prepared for that purpoſe. Any perſon inclined to undertake the buſineſs, is requeſted to make known his propoſals, in writing, between this and the 10th day of March next.

He will alſo diſpoſe of a number of TREES ſtanding, if a generous offer is made.

December 21, 1792.

BY THE HOUSE of DELEGATES,
December 23, 1792.

ORDERED, That the several resolves expressing our sense of the necessity of our senators exerting themselves to procure the opening the doors of the senate of the United States, our disapprobation of one of our senators having heretofore opposed this sense, and our right of instructing them, with the vote of the house of delegates, and the endorsements of the senate, be published four weeks in the Maryland Gazette, Maryland Journal, and Maryland Herald, with the yeas and nays thereon.

By order,
W. HARWOOD, Clk.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, December, 22, 1792.

RESOLVED, That it is the opinion of this general assembly, that we are the immediate constituents of the senators representing this state in the senate of the United States, and that as such we have the undoubted right of instructing them whenever we shall think it necessary.

RESOLVED, That we do disapprove of the conduct of one of our senators aforesaid in acting in direct opposition to our instructions given at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-one.

RESOLVED, That it is the opinion of this general assembly, that the opening the doors of the senate of the United States, when sitting in their legislative capacity, will greatly promote that confidence in the measures of the general government so essential to the prosperity of the union.

RESOLVED, That it is the opinion of this general assembly, that every exertion ought to be made by our senators aforesaid, at the present session, to obtain this desirable object.

RESOLVED, That the honourable the president of the senate and speaker of the house of delegates be and they are hereby requested to transmit a copy of these resolves to the honourable John Henry and Richard Potts.

By order,
W. HARWOOD, Clk.

On the second reading the said resolutions the question was put, That the house assent to the second resolution? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Thomas Ringgold appeared as follow:

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near the mouth of Patapsco, on the 2d day of December, a negro man named ISAAC, about twenty-three years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high, very well set, had on when he went away, a pair of new kersey breeches, an old elastic cloth coat, a pair of old stockings and shoes, and a coarse felt hat; but it is likely he will change his cloaths, as he is an artful fellow; it is supposed that he will make his escape by water, as he was brought up to it. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow, so that the owner gets him again, shall receive, if within the county, eight dollars, if out of the county sixteen dollars, and if twenty miles out, the above reward, with reasonable charges if brought home, paid by JOHN M. STEVENS.

Anne-Arundel county, January 8, 1793.

Patowmack Company.

THE subscribers to the PATOWMACK COMPANY are hereby informed that a further call of ten pounds sterling, on each share, is required to be paid to William Hartshorne, treasurer for the company, on or before the first day of March next. The subscribers are reminded that the call of eight pounds sterling, due the 10th of October past, is expected to be paid immediately, with the interest due thereon.

By order of the directors,
WILLIAM HARTSHORNE, Treasurer.

In CHANCERY, January 1, 1793.

ON the application to the chancellor, by a petition in writing, of ZACHARIAH OWEN, an insolvent debtor, praying the benefit of an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and offering, agreeably to said act, to deliver up, to the use of his creditors, all his property, real, personal, or mixed, to which he is any way entitled, and a list of his creditors, and a schedule of his property, so far as he can ascertain, on oath, being annexed to the said petition; it is thereupon by the chancellor adjudged and ordered, that the said Zachariah Owen appear before the chancellor, in the chancery office, in the city of Annapolis, on the fourth day of March next, for the purpose of taking, in the presence of such of his creditors as shall attend in person, or by their agents or attornies, the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property as aforesaid, and that in the mean time he give notice to his creditors of his application aforesaid, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette any time before the eleventh instant, and continued therein four weeks successively.

Test. SAMUEL H. HOWARD,
Reg. Cur. Can.

CAME to the subscribers plantation, on the head of South-river, about the last of September, an old brown COW, with a white belly, marked with a crop in each ear and an under bit out of the left. The owner is desired to come and prove property, pay charges, and take her away.

THOMAS TUCKER.

MANAGERS,

John Muir, Annapolis; Benjamin Stoddert, Georgetown; James Bell, Queen-Anne; John Brooke, Upper-Marlborough; Thomas Tillard, Pig-Point; Robert Bowie, Nottingham; Truman Compton, Magruder's; John Forbes, Bristol; James Somerville, Thomas Harwood, junior, Joseph Wilkinson, William Grahame, Peter Emmerson, Charles Williamson, John Chesley, Thomas Parran, Henry Hunt, Calvert county; of whom tickets may be had, and of all the merchants on Patuxent.

No. 1, contains all woodland, Bennet's creek running through it, and lies within thirty miles of the federal city, fully worth the estimated amount. 2 to 7 contains very valuable land lying near the town of Lower-Marlborough, where wood commands 20s. per cord, the cartage to the water little more than half a mile from the extent of the land, and each lot to have the privilege of a cart way to the water. Deeds, with general warrantees, to be made for the land. Plots of the land may be seen with each of the managers. The cash prizes to be paid on demand; the snuff warranted genuine and good, and to be delivered at Lower-Marlborough. Crop or transfer notes for tobacco, on Patuxent, will be taken in payment at the market prices. Ten per cent. deduction to be made to those who pay the cash before the day of drawing. The lottery is purposed to be drawn on the third Tuesday in June next, if the tickets are all sold, at Lower-Marlborough. Notice will be given of the time, and a list of the fortunate numbers published immediately after drawing. Country produce will be taken at the market price, if delivered at the subscriber's mill within one month of drawing the lottery.

SETH SWEETSER,
Boot and Shoe Manufacturer,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public in general, and his friends in particular, that he has moved to the house lately occupied by Mr. STEPHEN CLARK, next door but one to where he formerly lived, where he intends carrying on his business in all its various branches, in the neatest and most fashionable manner, and on the lowest terms, as he has lately received a fresh supply of Morocco leather of different colours, suitable for ladies slippers, boot legs and bend soles, of the best quality, and is determined to carry on his business with the greatest punctuality and dispatch. He returns his sincere thanks to his friends and customers for the encouragement he has already received since his commencement in business; he hopes by his attention and punctuality to merit the custom of those who please to favour him with their commands.

He has also for sale,

New-England sole leather, bend soles, a general assortment of shoemakers tools, gentlemens plated and plain boot buckles, shoe ditto, best blacking ball and brushes for cleaning boots and shoes, coffee, candles, soap, butter, and rosin. Orders for any of the above-mentioned articles will be thankfully received and duly attended to.

TO BE SOLD,
A neat PHAETON,
With or without a PAIR of young stout BAY
MARES.

9 Inquire of the Printers.

An ACT to appoint an agent for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three.

BE IT ENACTED, by the general assembly of Maryland, That Randolph Brandt Latimer be agent of this state, to execute the trust and power reposed in him by virtue of this act, from the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, until the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four.

And be it enacted, That the said agent superintend the collection of all arrearages and balances due from the several collectors of the respective counties within this state, appointed since the first day of January, seventeen hundred and eighty-three; and the said agent is hereby authorised and required to call upon the treasurers of the respective shores for an accurate statement of all the arrearages and balances due from such collectors, and such account shall be furnished by the said treasurers accordingly.

And be it enacted, That the said agent be authorised to superintend the collection of all balances due to the state on open account; and the said agent shall have power to require payment of, and if necessary to sue for the same; and the said agent, with the approbation of the governor and council, may make composition with any such debtors, and take bonds to the state, with sufficient security, and give time for payment, not exceeding four years from the first day of December, seventeen hundred and ninety-two, always requiring annual payments of the interest, and equal annual payments of the principal.

And be it enacted, That the said agent be authorised to superintend the collection of all monies due to the state for duties, fines, penalties, forfeitures and amerciaments, and forfeited recognizances, and for ordinary, retailers and marriage licences, and to require payment, and (if necessary) sue for the same; and the said agent may allow for insolvencies, and credit any money that the party is not chargeable with by law; and for his information of the law he may take the advice of the attorney-general in writing.

And be it enacted, That whenever there shall be occasion to expose to public sale the property of any collector, or his securities, by virtue of any execution already issued, or to be directed for this purpose, the agent shall cause public notice to be given of such sale, and shall attend the same, and if it shall appear that there is danger of losing any part of the debt due to the state, and not otherwise, shall purchase any property so exposed for the use of the state, in payment, or part payment, as the case may be, of the arrearages due by the collectors whose property may be so purchased; and any property so purchased for the use of the state, the said agent may again expose to public auction on the most advantageous terms for the interest of the state, and if the same be sold on credit, the said agent shall take bond, with good and sufficient security, to be approved of by the treasurer of the western shore, from the several purchasers of such property; and all bonds by him so taken shall be deposited, with an accurate list thereof subscribed by him, into the treasury of the western shore, and shall be a lien upon the real property of such purchasers and their securities from their respective dates.

And be it enacted, That the said agent shall have power to dispose of all confiscated British property that remains unsold, and take bonds to the state, with sufficient security, and give time for payment, not exceeding four years, from the first day of December, seventeen hundred and ninety-two, always requiring annual payment of the interest, and equal annual payments of the principal.

And, whereas there are still some balances due to this state upon sales of confiscated property unbonded for, and it appears to this general assembly that in some cases the purchasers are unable to make payment, and the property is becoming daily of less value, Be it enacted, That the said agent, with the approbation of the governor and council, be authorised to release any of the said purchasers who are unable to pay from their purchases, and take back the property for the use of the state; and the said agent, with the approbation of the governor and council, may make composition with the said purchasers for the use of the said property, and take bonds for the same to the state, with sufficient security, and give time for payment, not exceeding four years, from the first day of December, seventeen hundred and ninety-two, always requiring annual payment of the interest, and equal annual payments of the principal; and any property taken back the said agent shall dispose of in the same manner as he is before authorised to dispose of confiscated British property unsold, and to take bonds in the same manner for the purchase money, and on the same credit and terms; provided, that in no case shall the state refund any part of the principal or interest paid by such purchasers.

And be it enacted, That the governor and council be authorised, if they shall think it necessary, to require new bond and security from any debtor who has not installed, and to limit a time within which such new bond and security shall be given, and if the same be not given within the time so limitted, they shall direct the said agent to cause process to issue on the bonds of such debtors, and their securities, or to proceed on any execution already issued and served and suspended, as the case may require, for the whole principal and interest due from such debtors.

And be it enacted, That if any bond debtor shall neglect to make payment, agreeably to the condition of his bond, and sundry resolves of the general assembly, the said agent shall cause process to issue for the whole principal and interest then due, or shall proceed on any execution already issued and served and suspended as aforesaid, as occasion may require.

And be it enacted, That the said agent be authorised to superintend the collection of all balances due on bonds taken for taxes due before the first of January, seventeen hundred and eighty-three; and the said agent shall also superintend the collection of all balances due on bonds installed, or otherwise, for the emissions of paper money of seventeen hundred and sixty-nine and seventeen hundred and seventy-three.

And be it enacted, That in all cases where bonds shall be taken in consequence of this act, the said bonds shall be a lien on all the real property of the obligors from the date thereof, or on so much of the said real property as the governor and council shall think sufficient, to be particularly mentioned in a schedule to be annexed to the said bond, in which case it shall be a lien on the property contained in such schedule, and no more, such bond and schedule to be lodged with the treasurer of the western shore.

And be it enacted, That all bonds taken in virtue of this act shall express the county in which the obligors respectively reside, and the treasurer of the western shore shall, within one month after he receives them, respectively cause them, with the schedules annexed to them, to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the general court of the western shore at the expence of the obligors; and a copy of the said record, certified under the hand and official seal of the said clerk, shall be as good evidence in any court of law or equity in this state as the original bond would be if it was produced; and if any of the obligors in any such bonds reside on the western shore, the said treasurer shall, within six months from the time he receives the same respectively, transmit to the clerk of the general court of the eastern shore, in the same manner that papers on public service are transmitted, a copy of such bonds and schedules, certified as aforesaid by the clerk of the general court of the western shore, to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the general court of the eastern shore, at the expence of the obligors, and in such case a copy of the said record, certified as aforesaid by the said clerk of the general court of the eastern shore, shall be good evidence as aforesaid.

And be it enacted, That the said agent shall have power to fix such days for the sale of property taken on fieri facias at the suit of the state as he may think proper, always taking care to give twenty days notice thereof.

And be it enacted, That no process shall issue against any of the collectors aforesaid since the first day of January, seventeen hundred and eighty-three, unless by direction of the said agent.

And be it enacted, That the said agent shall pay into the treasury, in specie, the amount of all specie by him received in the discharge of the duties of this act.

And, whereas in Worcester county no collector of the fund tax for the year seventeen hundred and ninety-one hath been appointed, Be it enacted, That the said agent be authorised to appoint a collector of the said tax in said county, who shall give security for the performance of his duty agreeably to law; and the said agent may contract with and allow the person so to be appointed, a commission not exceeding twelve per cent. for collecting the same; and the said collector shall proceed to act in the same manner, and be liable to the same duties in all respects, as if he had been appointed by the commissioners.

And be it enacted, That the said agent shall render a fair and full account of his several proceedings under the authority of this act, to the general assembly at their next session, and shall be allowed for his services the following commissions, to wit: For all payments made to either of the treasurers on bonds for confiscated property, one per cent. for all bonds with security, taken by the said agent on resales of confiscated property in virtue of this act, two and a half per cent. for all monies collected on open accounts, four per cent. and for all other monies or bonds, paid in or taken in virtue of this act, one and a half per cent.

And be it enacted, That the said agent, before he enters upon the execution of the duties of this act, shall give bond to the state, before the governor and the council, in the penalty of twenty thousand pounds current money, with such securities as the governor and the council shall approve, for the faithful performance of the said duties, which bond shall be lodged with the treasurer of the western shore, and shall also take an oath before the chancellor, that he will well and faithfully discharge the duties of agent, under the act, entitled, "An act to appoint an agent for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three," to the best of his skill and judgment; the certificate of which oath shall be annexed to, or endorsed on, the said bond.

And be it enacted, That if the said agent shall not accept his appointment, or if after acceptance he shall not give bond and take the oath aforesaid before the first day of February next, or shall die, the governor and the council are hereby authorised and requested to appoint a fit and proper person in his place, who shall have and execute all the authorities and powers vested in the said Randolph Brandt Latimer by this act, such person first giving security and taking the oath aforesaid.

In COUNCIL, January 8, 1793.

ORDERED, That all debtors to this state for the purchase of confiscated British property, and others who might have installed their debts under the act of assembly passed November session, 1792, entitled, An act respecting the creditors and debtors of this state, and who neglected to comply with the terms of the said act, be and they are hereby required to install all such debts on or before the twentieth day of June next.

ORDERED, That the agent be and he is hereby required, immediately after the said twentieth day of June next, to cause process to issue on the bonds of such debtors as shall neglect to install within the time above limitted, and their securities, or to proceed on any execution already issued and served and suspended, or otherwise, as the case may require, for the recovery of the whole principal and interest due from such debtors.

By order,

T. JOHNSON, jun. cl.

NOTICE.

THE debtors to the state of Maryland for confiscated property purchased, and others who have installed their debts, and whose instalments became due on the first day of December last, and which still remain unpaid, will be pleased to observe, that no process have as yet issued, or will issue, for the recovery thereof, until after the twentieth day of February next. This notice, it is sincerely hoped, will be attended to, it will save the debtor a considerable expence, and the officer the disagreeable task of enforcing the collection. Process will certainly be commenced, without refusal to persons, on the twenty-first day of February, against every delinquent.

The several county clerks, who did not make their returns on the first of November last, for fines, forfeitures and amerciaments, put into the sheriffs hands for collection, and their payments for marriage, ordinary, and retailers licences, received by them, will be pleased also to observe, that they are subject to very heavy penalties for neglect of duty, and that my duty to the public will compel me to pursue the directions of the law, unless a speedy compliance is had.

RANDOLPH B. LATIMER.

Annapolis, January 8, 1793.

CONSTANT attendance will be given, by the COMMISSIONERS of the federal buildings, or by a person properly authorised by them, at their office in George-town, from the first day of April to the first day of May next, to execute assignments and allotments of lands in the CITY of WASHINGTON. The proprietors thereof, whose lands have been conveyed in trust, or subjected by the act of assembly, concerning the territory of Columbia and the city of Washington, to the terms and conditions of the deeds in trust for the lands in the city, are requested to attend, that allotments may be made by agreement; for the commissioners, after the first day of May, will proceed to make allotments, agreeably to the directions of the above recited act of assembly. The other proprietors are hereby informed, that process will issue after the first day of May next, to have their lands valued, if the same are not conveyed on the usual terms before that time. For the convenience of such, proprietors' deeds will be left at Annapolis, with Mr. Thomas Buchanan; at Baltimore, with Mr. Archibald Robinson; at Upper-Marlborough, with Mr. David Crawford, and at George-town, with

JOHN M. GANTT, Clerk to the commissioners.

George-town, December 4, 1792.

THE COMMISSIONERS of the federal buildings want to employ FOUR SETS of SAWYERS immediately in the city of Washington; one set of whom well acquainted with sawing mahogany. Application to be made to Mr. JAMES HOBEN, in the city. If the employment will be steady, it may therefore be an object.

George-town, December 5, 1792.

Eight Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 12th inst. a negro man named WILL, about 23 years of age, five feet nine or ten inches high; had on, when he went away, a round felt hat, osnabrig shirt and trousers, and a coarse cloth over jacket, short and round, he had other cloaths with him, which cannot well be described, he is likely, of a very dark complexion, full faced, and has a remarkable fine set of teeth, he is slow of speech, and rather awkward in his manners, is a tolerable good blacksmith, but has never worked as foreman of a shop; he was formerly the property of Henry May, late of this county, blacksmith. This fellow was taken out of gaol at Alexandria, in Virginia, about eight days ago, but has since made his escape; when he was apprehended he had a forged pass in his possession, and it is expected he may have procured another. Whoever takes up the said negro and brings him to me, or secures him in any gaol so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.

RICHARD BEARD.

N. B. It is probable this fellow may endeavour to pass for a free man, as there are many free blacks passing about the country; when he went to Alexandria his intention was to have made his escape by water, I therefore forewarn all masters of vessels, and others from harbouring or concealing him at their peril, as they should they may expect to be dealt with agreeably to law.
